

National Day of Jordan

PUBLICITY

Jordan marks 80th anniversary of independence

By Nasser Shraideh

Ambassador of Jordan to Japan

On this Independence Day, as we commemorate the 80th anniversary of the independence of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, we reflect with pride on our nation's journey and achievements since 1946. Guided by the values of moderation, coexistence and respect for human dignity, Jordan has remained committed to peace, stability and constructive dialogue despite the many challenges facing our region.

Nasser Shraideh

Under the leadership of His Majesty King Abdullah II, Jordan has pursued balanced diplomacy while advancing reforms that strengthen institutions, empower citizens and create opportunities for future generations. Jordan continues to work closely with international partners to promote regional stability, humanitarian cooperation and sustainable development.

Last year, His Majesty King Abdullah II paid the 16th official visit to Japan, reaffirming our shared commitment to cooperation and mutual understanding. In addition, His Royal Highness Crown Prince Al Hussein bin Abdullah II attended the National Day of Jordan at the 2025 Osaka-Kansai Expo, highlighting Jordan's vision for innovation and global partnership.

Jordan's greatest strength lies in its people. Our youth, researchers, educators and entrepreneurs

The Embassy of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan

Amman, Jordan's capital city, is bursting with architectural landmarks, historical sites and cultural gems.

continue to contribute to innovation, economic growth and social development. In recent years, Jordan has encouraged progress in areas such as life sciences, green technologies and digital transformation while investing in education and human capital to build a resilient and inclusive economy.

Jordan has also shown resilience and generosity in responding to humanitarian crises in the region by providing support and refuge to those affected by conflict and displacement. At the same time, the Kingdom remains focused on environmental sustainability and water security as essential priorities for long-term prosperity.

As we celebrate this important national occasion, we express our sincere appreciation to all our friends and partners around the world, especially Japan, for their continued friendship and support. May this Independence Day inspire renewed confidence, deeper cooperation and a shared commitment to peace and prosperity for future generations.

Congratulations to the People of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan

on the Anniversary of

Their National Day

JAPAN-JORDAN ASSOCIATION

Chairman: Mikio Sasaki

3-1, Marunouchi 2-chome, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo 100-8086